MONTHLY NEWSLETTER

SEPTEMBER 2024

FAREWELL TO LIANA!

Pomander Gate extends its warmest wishes to Liana Carrick on her well-deserved retirement. Liana has played a pivotal role in the development of the pickleball membership at the club, showcasing exceptional dedication and commitment as the club manager for the past two years. Her efforts have not only expanded the club's culture but also enhanced membership engagement in various club activities beyond tennis and pickleball.

As Liana embarks on this new chapter in her life, it's important to recognize her significant contributions and lasting impact on Pomander Gate. Her passion for fostering a sense of community and creating a vibrant club environment has left a lasting impression on all of us.

We extend our heartfelt gratitude to Liana for her hard work, leadership, and unwavering enthusiasm throughout her tenure. She leaves behind a legacy of excellence that will continue to inspire us in the years to come.

Liana, may your retirement be filled with joy, relaxation, and countless memorable moments. Your presence at Pomander Gate will be sorely missed, but your legacy will continue to thrive within our club.

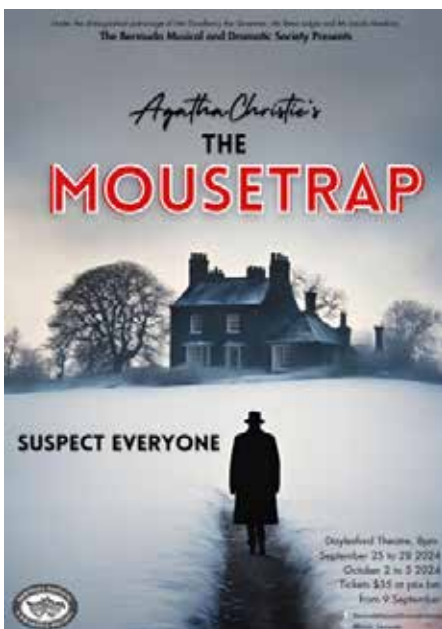

Warm regards and best wishes on your retirement journey,

Pomander Gate Club

Welcome RYON!

Introducing Ryon Outerbridge, the new Club Manager at Pomander Gate Tennis & Pickleball Club. With a strong reputation for organization & excellence, along side a profound passion for sports, Ryon brings a dynamic energy and innovative approach to the Club. His leadership is set to elevate the Club experience promising exciting opportunities for all members and, following in Liana's shoes, an equally vibrant direction for Pomander Gate.
